Autumn 1 Newsletter

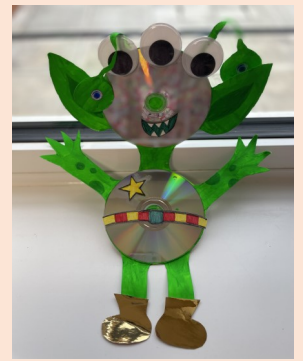

September 2023

Welcome back to the new school year. I expect you have all been reading lots over the holidays and are full of recommendations for your class and friends.

Summer Library Competition

Congratulations to all those that have entered our summer challenge. We have received some amazing bookends and characters to place in our library. Look out for them making an appearance soon!

Which is your favourite? Can you guess which characters they are?

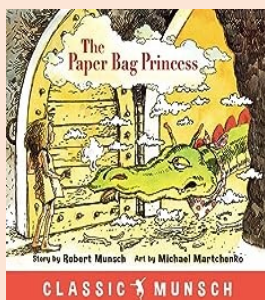

Staff Picks

All our staff love to read! Every newsletter we recommend books we have read to help inspire you!

This half term, Miss Burrell (Y2) recommends:
The Paper Bag Princess by Robert Munsch

This was always one of my favourite bedtime stories! It is about a girl being kidnapped by a dragon, but the princess in this story is very different from others you may have read about and the ending isn't like other books!

This book always makes me laugh!

The Reading Shed

The Reading Shed will now be open on Wednesday lunchtimes!

Come and relax with a book, tell jokes, read a magazine or try some origami!

If you have any unwanted children's comics or magazines, please donate them to our school library, The Enchanted Woods.

Thank You!

Why Read?

Did you know? If you read for just 15 minutes each day, in one year you will have read over one million words!

Try our Tongue Twisters!

I scream, you scream, we all scream for ice cream.

Toy boat. Try boat. Toy boat. Try boat.

Five frantic frogs fled from fifty fierce fishes.

A synonym for cinnamon is a cinnamon synonym.

Twelve twins twirled twelve twigs.

The great Greek grape growers grow great Greek grapes.

Give papa a cup of proper coffee in a copper coffee cup.

If a dog chews shoes, whose shoes does he choose?

Red lorry, yellow lorry, red lorry, yellow lorry, red lorry, yellow lorry.

If you notice this notice, you will notice that this notice is not worth noticing.

Can you guess the book characters?
